PARTICIPATION

Membership Tags:

All members are issued annual membership tags which should be displayed when using the trails. Club preference would be to have tags mailed out to members. However if this is not possible please contact Roy Fremont, (306)922-2520; Mike Horn, (306)922-1500, or Doug Dietrick, (306)764-4051 to set up a drop off/pick up.

Volunteer Information

We are a volunteer organization. The Club can't continue to operate or improve without member support. Please check below how you are able to participate. This will allow us to develop an up-to-date contact list.

Trail Clean Up.

Every fall, and after major weather events, we need extra hands to clear debris from the trails.

Check here if you can help with Trail Clean-up

Jackrabbit Helper.

The Children's development group can always use extra help. Interested parties will be provided training as coaches. It's a great way to contribute, and improve one's own skiing ability.

Ski Club Executive Board.

The Board is made up of 12 Club members. These are the people who guide the affairs of the Club. New people and ideas are crucial to the Club's future.

Event Planning and Execution.

On the weekend of Jan. 28th & 29st, 2017, the Prince Albert Ski Club is hosting a Sask Cup Race Event on Saturday, and a Loppet on Sunday. These events require substantial member involvement starting at the planning stage, and through to the actual event. Please indicate your support for either or both events below.

Trail Grooming/Tracking

The Club can always use more people on the Grooming Roster. No previous experience is required! Some warm clothing, (pants and boots), is provided. Training is provided by senior members, and until a person is competent and confident to "go it alone", we always use the buddy system.
